New Executive Director for SportAbility.

The Board of Directors of SportAbility is pleased to announce Ross MacDonald has been selected to the position of Executive Director for SportAbility. He will be taking over the position from Terrie Moore, who is retiring after 28 years of dedication and hard work with SportAbility. Ross has worked for the Association since 2001 in sport and program development roles and since 2010, has been working part time with the City of Surrey on their Accessibility and Inclusion and Sport Development Teams. Ross is a Paralympic athlete and former member of the Football 7-Aside Team and Wheelchair Basketball National Teams. His passion and knowledge of sport for persons with disabilities in BC will be a great asset.
Ross will be in the office two days a week working closely with the staff and monitoring his email outside of those two days.

“I am very excited to take on this new challenging and exciting role and look forward to working with the Board, staff, athletes and volunteers of SportAbility” says Ross MacDonald, new Executive Director of SportAbility.
